BOOTLEGGERS SENTENCED

IN SUPERIOR COURT

THURSDAY

Another batch of bootleggers threw up the sponge today and withdrawing their pleas of not guilty before the Superior Court, substituted pleas of guilty to several asces each, and drew their sentences as follows:

Ernest Garcia, 30 days and $50, 2 years suspended sentence.

J. C. Mitchell, 3 cases, 4 months and $450, 2 years suspended sentence.

George Pettijohn, released on $100 bond for one week by the Court in order to allow him to close up his business affairs, and return for sentence.

John Hall, 3 months, $300 and 2 years suspended sentence.

Henry Ashley, 30 days and $50, 2 years suspended sentence.

Fernando Martinez, 2 months and $50, 2 years suspended sentence.

Ben Hall, 30 days, $50, 2 years suspended sentence.

John Langely, 2 years suspended sentence, having already served 3 months.

The pleas of this morning, according to County Attorney J. F. Ross, have cleared the docket down to only 12 cases out of over 50, out of the remaining it is expected more pleas of guilty will be received.

The new "bunch" of men were received at the county jail by the fast growing colony this morning with an ovation from the boys already sentenced, and a kangaroo court was immediately organized and the new arrivals "put through" in regular style. It is reported they are all anxious to get out on the road, when the camp is established, which will be very soon, and which will almost lean out the jail, there only being at present some six or eight felony prisoners confined, the balance having been cleaned out during the past two terms of court. At present, however, the jail is full to capacity and the bootleggers have hung up a sign reading "No Admittance—Rooms All Occupied." They are all happy—as they can be, and all anxious to get out in the pure open air and donate their labor to Dear Old Cochise in the road building line.

FRIDAY

In the Superior Court today two cases were disposed of, without the necessity of empaneling a jury, and after the cases had been disposed of the Court excused the jury until the 14th, when several cases will be called to trial.

The case of the State vs. Leslie Mattingly, which was set for this morning was dismissed by motion of the county attorney for want of evidence. There was no evidence to show that Mattingly had violated the law and his case was dismissed, only one charge having been lodged against him.

The other case disposed of was that of the State vs. Carpenter, who pleaded guilty and was released on bond for a week to be allowed to close up his business, and return for sentence.

A special venire of 15 jurors was ordered returnable the 14th, and given to the sheriff for subpoena.

Tuesday being primary election day and Wednesday being naturalization day, when a large number of applicants for citizenship papers will appear for hearing, the Court excused the jury until Thursday, when the special venire will report.

TUSHING WORK

ON TAX NOTICES.

County Treasurer Harry S. Ross has a force of thirteen girls at work making out the 91 tax notices to be sent out this year, and expects to have the work completed inside of three weeks. The books were delivered to him the first part of the week by Clerk Karger of the board of supervisors, as provided by law, having been rushed through with an extra force.

There are about 9,000 tax notices to be made out in duplicate, and two shifts are kept busy on seven books. Mr. Ross is also sending out notice to delinquent taxpayers notifying them of the penalties attached.

TO GLEESON.

Tony Ciochetti went to Gleeson yesterday where he has accepted a position with Barney Bono in his store at that place.

COCHISE REGISTRATION

REACH TOTAL OF 13,522

The total registration for Cochise county for the primaries as compiled by the office of County Recorder Murphy is 13,521, and is given below by precinct. The registration for the primaries for 1914 was 11,756, or just 1,765 less than that of this year.

The total registration for the general election last year was only 12,311 or 710 less than the registration for the primaries this year, leading those who are in a position to know to think that the registration this year for the general election will reach in the neighborhood of the 15,000 mark. TOMBSTONE SCHOOLS

WILL OPEN MONDAY

The Tombstone Public Schools will open Monday morning with an increased attendance, according to the census of this year, however, it is earnestly requested by the board that the parents will have their children enter at the beginning of school in order that the plans may be adjusted to the best advantage.

Following are the teachers who will compose the faculty:

Professor C. E. Tilford, Supt. Prof. Walter Meyer, Miss Myra Teed, Miss Penny Lind, Miss Agnes Ludwig, Miss Bessie Seay, Miss Elizabeth Axtell, principal primary grades, Miss Julia Lockfellow.

Adjustment of rooms not having been made the teachers will not be assigned to their classes until Monday. The three buildings have been renovated, repaired and fumigated and all prepared for the opening day.

It is expected that another teacher will have to be added if the attendance comes up to what the board estimates.

Tombstone will have a strictly first class high school this year with a four year course adapted to University entrance preparatory work, and it is expected the attendance will more than justify.

BENSON VISITOR.

Judge William Shilliam, of Benson, was in the county seat today on business.

WILL SHORTEN ROAD TO

WILCOX BY 20 MILES

Since the board of supervisors has decided to build convicted bootleggers on the county roads Sheriff Wheeler is planning to take ten or twelve of them and put them to work making a new road, or rather rebuilding an old one, from Tombstone to Wilcox, saving nearly 20 miles over the present route.

The road is an old one but is in such a bad condition that the general public does not use it. Sheriff Wheeler says he thinks he is about the only man in the county that uses the road, but that if it were fixed up practically all the travel will go that way.

The road runs north from Tombstone through Cochise Stronghold and then through the Fourr ranch to Dragoon. Cochise and Johnson are both within seven miles of Dragoon and Wilcox is ten miles east of Cochise. The road shortens the present distance of 58 miles from Tombstone to Wilcox to 36 miles.

Sheriff Wheeler says the old road is also one of the prettiest scenic routes in southern Arizona. He declares a force of ten men can convert it into an excellent highway within a month's time.—International.

BLACK-EDGED BIDS

ANNOUNCE HANGING

Black bordered envelopes and black bordered stationery in the state mails are announcing the approach of death of one Robert Dayton Talley, at the state penitentiary, at Florence, Arizona, on September 16. These are the first invitations to executions sent out by the warden for some months. They were received in several cities.

Talley was convicted of the murder of an aged man in the postoffice in Miami about three years ago. The fight in which the shooting occurred arose over difficulties between the two principles concerning the murdered man's step-daughter. Talley was tried inside two weeks after the shooting, convicted and sentenced to hang. He is twenty-four years of age and a native of New Mexico. He was a miner by trade.

The invitation which is sent out from the state prison reads:

"Pursuant to section 1149 of the penal code, the State of Arizona requests your presence at the execution of the following men, condemned to die on September 15, 1916, at the Arizona State Prison, Florence, Arizona: Robert Dayton Talley."
